

MINORITY PIPELINE INITIATIVE

presented by

To train, match, and elect professionals of color to nonprofit boards of directors.

Task Force Members

Randell McShepard
RPM International Inc.
Chairman

April Miller Boise
Eaton

Michael Bowen
Calfee, Halter & Griswold LLP

Gregory Brown
PolicyBridge

Paul Clark
PNC Bank (retired)

Nicole Crews
Swagelok Company

Lauren Gliha
Business Volunteers Unlimited

Blaine Griffin
Cleveland City Council

Vaughn P. Johnson
Urban League of Greater Cleveland

Allison Kimbrough
Business Volunteers Unlimited

Steve Millard
Greater Akron Chamber

Dr. Charles Modlin
Cleveland Clinic

Marcia Moreno
Young Latino Network

Victor Ruiz
Esperanza, Inc.

Sharon Sobol Jordan
Unify Project

Elizabeth Voudouris
Business Volunteers Unlimited

Michael R. White
Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation

Candidate Criteria:

- Interest in the community
- Expertise & achievement in a select field
- Interest and readiness to serve on the board of a nonprofit organization in Northeast Ohio
- Willingness to collaborate and lead
- Vision, strategic thinking, teamwork, fundraising and personal commitment

How to get Involved:

- Attend the MPI Role of the Board
Tuesday, Oct. 13, 5:00 - 8:00 PM
Registration link here
- Enroll in BVU's Board Matching Program during the training session

"I am so grateful for the support that BVU provided in matching me with The Art Therapy Studio. The BVU team listened to the experience that I was looking to have and matched me with the board who needed the talents I can offer."

Nike Olabisi
Minority Pipeline Initiative Candidate

www.bvuvolunteers.org | 216.736.7711