Kate Hubben, Vice President

Kate is a Vice President of NFP Corporate Services (OH), Inc., a company specializing in insurance products, consulting services and technology solutions for businesses and non-profits.

Kate advocates strongly for her clients and works closely with them to achieve savings and qualitative improvements to their employee benefit plans. Prior to joining NFP, Kate was an employee benefit consultant at Willis Towers Watson and the Senior Director of Global Patient Services at the Cleveland Clinic.

Kate is active in the community and serves as Secretary of the Board of Directors for the Edna House and the Cleveland Jewish News. Kate was a past board member of In Counsel with Women and the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center where she spearheaded the successful effort to extend the statute of limitations for rape victims in Ohio. Kate is a regular contributor to Crain's Cleveland Business and has been the recipient of AJC's Sholom Comay Fellowship, Crain's Cleveland Business 40 Under 40, Northern Ohio Live's 500 Most Influential Leaders and The Preceptor Award from the Association of Leadership Programs.

Kate has a Bachelors of Arts degree from Ohio State University and a Master of Public Administration degree from Cleveland State University. Kate is also a part-time yoga instructor.
