

HOMELESS STAND DOWN

resources • respite • reconnection

April 22, 2023 | Cleveland Public Auditorium

At the 32nd annual Homeless Stand Down, individuals and organizations from all parts of the community came together to provide haircuts, medical checkups, hot meals, and more to our neighbors in need.

The Homeless Stand Down at the Cleveland Public Auditorium

The Homeless Stand Down embodies BVU's mission by connecting businesses, nonprofits, and individuals to strengthen our community. Volunteer labor, valued at $44,520, was essential to the success of the Homeless Stand Down.

Cleveland Mayor Justin Bibb greets a guest

"I am really grateful to have had the opportunity to volunteer at the Homeless Stand Down. I felt privileged to serve our guests for that time. I would do it again. Very well organized event. Congrats to BVU!"
